Inscriptions start at 12 pm. on 12 September 2022 and end at 11:59 p.m. on 9 January 2023.

Entry in this competition is free of charge and there is no requirement to purchase any product or service.

4.1 Registration for the Reels competition

To take part in this competition you need to have your own profile on Instagram.

Participation must comply with the requirements of the 'Reels' Subtravelling competition.

5. How the 'Roda a TMB' competition works

- Short films are understood to be an unpublished and original audio-visual recording, recorded and edited by the participant, be it fiction, reality, documentary or 2D-3D or stop motion animation, that fulfils the conditions stipulated in these rules.
- The theme is free, the only condition being that TMB transports should be used as a setting, or its facilities or means of transport should appear in some way.
- The theme can also promote values, such as civic behaviour and coexistence. Transport services provided by other operators are excluded.
- TMB's transport services include the metro, urban buses, the Montjuïc Cable Car and the Montjuïc Funicular and the Barcelona Bus Turístic.
- It should be noted that the TMB metro area is limited to lines 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 9 North and 9 South, 10 North, 10 South and 11.
- Short films can be recorded using any recording device.

- The use of tripods is prohibited in all TMB facilities and means of transport.
- Filming inside TMB facilities can be done as long as the filming permit is requested, in compliance with the established regulations, which can be found on the Subtravelling website.
  - Inside TMB facilities and on means of transport, the filming team (including the technical and artistic team and the cast of actors) cannot consist in more than four people. No spotlights or sound booms are allowed. Neither are any other tools that may get in users' way.
- Filming of simulations of criminal scenes (theft, fights, begging, playing instruments inside trains or buses, etc.) is not allowed. For any queries about a scene, you can submit a contact form on the Subtravelling website.
- Shorts will not be accepted outside the aforementioned period.
- Each participant can present one or more short films.
- Short films presented must be previously unpublished at the 13th Subtravelling Festival but may have been presented at other festivals.
- Once the shorts have been submitted, they may not be altered or replaced.
- The participating short films will be posted on the Subtravelling website and on the Subtravelling and TMB YouTube channel.

5.1 How the 'Reels' competition works

- Upload a video to the open profile on Instagram - 'Reels'.
- Tag #Subtravellingreels22
- The theme of the videos is free, but it should in some way show the use of public transport or TMB facilities: metro, bus, Montjuïc Cable Car, Montjuïc Funicular or Barcelona Bus Turístic.
- You can select the music you want for 'Reels'.
- The duration can be 15, 30 or 60 seconds.
- Participants can submit more than one reel to the competition, so long as it is unpublished.

6. Conditions for short films and 'Reels'

6.1 'Roda a TMB' conditions

- Short films presented by participants must be original.
- Short films presented must be unpublished as of the 13th edition of the Subtravelling festival.
- The maximum duration of the short film should be 3 minutes and 30 seconds, including credits.
- Short films exceed 3 minutes and 30 seconds will not be accepted.
- Short films can be in video formats compatible with the YouTube platform, but preferably in:
  - MP4
- Participants may be asked for another format if their short film cannot be played on TMB platforms.
- The maximum audio requirements are as follows:
  - Audio codec: MPEG Layer II or Dolby AC-3
  - Audio bit-rate: 128 kbps or higher
- The video resolution can be 1,080 p (1,920x1.080 px) or 720 p (1,280x720 px).
- Recordings can be vertical or horizontal.
- Short films may have subtitles
- Short films that contain archive images, sound effects or music, must comply with the intellectual property protection law, TMB does not take responsibility for any reports of non-compliance with this law and the short may be disqualified.
- TMB reserves the right to ask finalists to present the short film in a format that enables screening during the awards ceremony.
- TMB can then request a copy of the short film in a another format for public screening.

- Short films that are not in Catalan or Spanish must be subtitled in Catalan or Spanish. The festival organisation can request a subtitled short if it has not been presented in Catalan or Spanish. If the short film is not received within 5 days, the short may be disqualified.

6.2 'Roda a TMB' and 'Reels' conditions

- Short films or videos that contain archive images, sound effects or music must comply with the intellectual property protection law. TMB does not take responsibility for any reports of non-compliance with this law and the short film or video may be disqualified in the event that any such non-compliance or unlawful use is reported.
- With their participation in this competition, contestants guarantee that their shorts or Reel videos are original recordings, of their own creation, and that they hold all intellectual property rights and the shorts are not subject to any charge or encumbrance.
- The use of any personal details of third parties (name, surname, image, voice, etc.) requires the prior consent of the person involved.
- Short films and videos must respect the law, morals, public order, good use and customs.
- They may not damage or violate the sensitivity of people, nor may they incite conducts of a violent, sexist, discriminatory, anti-religious nature or contrary to social uses. They may not use foul language or include shots of total or partial nudes or of an erotic or sexual nature.
- They may not be contrary to the good name, prestige or image of TMB, nor can it be a means for advertising third party products or services.
- They must comply with current law and therefore must not violate the rights of third parties, particularly in terms of intellectual property, honour, personal and family privacy and self-image rights and those relating to the use of the personal data of third parties and the obligations arising from the use of new technologies and commercial communications.
- Short films and videos will not be accepted if they affect the correct operation of public transport, or if they contain scenes with conduct contrary to current regulations, particularly the good use of public transport. This includes conduct that encourages or incites the use of tobacco, alcoholic beverages or toxic substances and narcotics, or that involve committing illegal or uncivil acts, including vandalism, or that promotes actions or provokes reactions of these types.

- Shorts and videos should respect the rights of minority groups, minors and any person with a disability. They should not be of a commercial, advertising, racist, sexual, religious or political nature, nor should they be a means to protest, complain or claim in any way.
- TMB reserves the right not to accept participations it considers unsuitable, owing to inadequate language or content, or that total or partially reproduce any other content on the internet or any other format, either online or offline, or means of exploitation.

7. Jury and selection of winners

The jury is made up of representatives of the world of cinema and TMB staff

- Alba Cros: film-maker. Chair of the jury.
- Yolanda Puga: Director of the Audiovisual Group Pariyoli & Friends, and director of several short films.

- Reyes Mendoza: graduate in Information Sciences and specialist in image and sound.
- Jordi Izquierdo Berbel: Member of the TMB's staff with extensive experience in the audiovisual world.

The winners will be selected as follows:

A. The jury has to choose 15 finalists from the 'Roda a TMB' category, and select the following from among them:

- ✓ Best short film.
- ✓ Second best short film.
- ✓ Special mention. This mention might not be included among the prizes.

In view of a possible tie between the participants, the score awarded the chair of the jury will first be taken into account, and if there is still a tie, the highest score from the TMB's Communication Director, Santiago Torres, will be taken into account.

7.1 Selection of the 'Reels' winner

From all the participants that comply with these rules, a single winner will be chosen. The jury will be made up of:

- The TMB social media team
- The TMB Advertising and Brand team

8. Screening of the 'Roda a TMB' short films

These 15 finalists may also be screened on the publicly owned channels Badalona TV and TV3, as long as the channel programming and management, alongside TMB, agree.

The ten finalist short films with the highest score from the jury will be screened during the 2023 edition of the Seoul Metro International Subway Film Festival (SMIFF) and on the screens of Mou TV.

- The ten finalists' short films will be published in the 'Roda a TMB section of the website <https://subtravellingfestival.tmb.cat/en/>
All the short films will be published on the TMB website <https://subtravellingfestival.tmb.cat/en/>
- All the short films will be available on the TMB website <https://subtravellingfestival.tmb.cat/en/>, on its social networks, on the Subtravelling and TMB YouTube channel and on the MouTV channel while TMB considers it appropriate.

9. Awards ceremony

Winners will be announced from December 2022 onwards at the awards ceremony or on the Subtravelling website at <http://subtravellingfestival.tmb.cat/es/> or by any other means of communication that TMB deems appropriate.

If an awards ceremony is held and the winners are not present, they will be considered to have forfeited their prize, and it will be declared void, so all participants are encouraged to attend the awards ceremony.

All information on this event will be published on the TMB's social networks and on the Subtravelling and TMB website, and will also be communicated to the finalists.

10.2 Awards for the 'Reels' category

✓ 'Reels' Competition

- Apple Watch

11. Terms and conditions of the prizes

- If, for whatever reason beyond its control, TMB is unable to provide the aforementioned prize, it will provide another one of equal or greater value.
- Due to the current situation of Covid-19, prizes may be amended either owing to the Covid-19 situation or at the request of the collaborators regarding Covid-19.
- The prize cannot be exchanged for its value in cash nor for any other prize.
- TMB does not take responsibility for the use the winner makes of the prize. TMB does not take responsibility for any incident that may take place after awarding the prize.
- TMB does not take responsibility for any operational defects, damage or deterioration nor for any variations, shortcomings or delivery deficiencies of the service to which the prize equates once it has been awarded to the winner, who should contact the manufacturer, official distributor, wholesaler, agency or service provider in any of those cases.
- Winners may only enjoy their prizes as per the conditions of use, and within the period of their validity.
- The prize is personal and non-transferable, and can only be used by the participant who won the competition.
- Any expenses that arise from attending the awards ceremony (including, but not limited to, travel, accommodation and subsistence allowances, amongst others) are to be met by the affected parties.
- The prizes only include the products or services explicitly mentioned in these terms and conditions.

- Participants included in the list of the ten finalists must attend the public awards ceremony, if held. TMB must verify the identifying data of any winners by means of their JoTMBé registration records. Any false information or contradiction in the data may lead to the disqualification of the winner and TMB reserves the right to declare the prize null and void or to choose another winner.
- In the event that a winner does not wish to receive the prize, or does not collect it within the established timeframe, TMB also reserves the right to declare the prize null and void or choose another winner.
- From the moment a winner receives a prize that includes a trip, they will have a period of 15 days to perform all procedures to set the dates of the trip directly with the travel agency, or with the person or institution designated by the organisation of the Subtravelling festival. TMB may not intervene in these procedures.
- The trips include two return flights in tourist class and the stay in the hotel.
- The trip to Seoul must be taken on the dates of the SMIFF festival in 2023. These dates may be changed due to the Covid-19 situation in Seoul or may be altered at the request of the SMIFF festival.
- The annual pass for the Filmax Gran Via cinema is personal and non-transferable. The annual pass holder must prove their identity by presenting their original government- issued ID card. It only allows for one ticket per day, including 3D films, from Monday to Sunday. This annual pass may be amended owing to the future situation of Covid-19, and may be altered at the request of the Filmax organisation.
- All special events are excluded from film ticket and annual pass prizes. Access will be subject to seating availability; the Filmax Gran Via cinema reserves the right to modify the conditions as required by the distributors.
- Winners may only enjoy their prizes as per the conditions of use, and within the period of their validity.
- The prizes only include the products or services explicitly mentioned.

12. Exemption from liability

TMB shall not be liable for:

- The outcome, accidents, incidents or any consequences that participants or third parties may suffer during the production of shorts.
- The requirements of permits of any type related to the shorts, required by administrative authorities. TMB is also exempt from any measures these authorities may take against participants as a result of non-compliance with the requirements demanded.
- Loss or damages of any type for whatever reason that participants cause to TMB, its employees or to third parties, arising directly or indirectly from their participation in the competition, particularly, though not limited to, those derived from non-compliance with these conditions, instructions and recommendations given by TMB or dictated by current legislation.
- Sanctions, indemnifications and any type of payment derived directly or indirectly from the actions or omissions of the participants.
- The Covid-19 situation, that may lead to it not being possible to film in TMB's premisses or restrict access to them, or any other limitation or prohibition that may arise.
- Problems of access, availability or operation of the internet, especially in terms of email and the portals through which the competition is organised.
- Changes to dates and timings in the organisation of this competition.
- Any incident that may arise after the prize has been awarded. Claims relating to the prize must be addressed to the manufacturer or official distributor of the product that constitutes the prize or else to the wholesaler, agency or provider of the service.

13. Reservations and limitations

- TMB reserves the right to cancel or suspend this competition whether for technical reasons or for any other circumstances beyond its control, such as Covid-19, that interfere with its normal operation as stipulated in these terms and conditions.
- TMB may likewise cancel this competition if it detects any irregularities in the prize-winning contestants' identifying data.

- TMB shall not be responsible for the accuracy of the data provided by participants. Therefore, if the data provided are incorrect or contain errors, TMB takes no responsibility for not being able to contact finalists or winners to advise them of the result or to arrange delivering the prize to them.
- Any abusive or fraudulent use of these rules by participants will lead to the automatic disqualification of the participants concerned.

14. Guarantees

- By submitting shorts, in accordance with the stipulations of these rules, participants guarantee that they are the authors and holders of all intellectual property rights for the shorts. They also guarantee that the shorts are original and unpublished, and also that they are free of any encumbrance or charge, and are not subject to contracts, transfers or licences in favour of third parties that are incompatible with exercising the rights, that contestants transfer to TMB through their participation in this competition.
- In all cases, participants agree to absolve TMB of any liability in terms of any claims, complaints or demands from third parties derived directly or indirectly from their taking part in this competition and, in particular, from non-compliance with these conditions and with current legislation.

15. Intellectual property

Simply taking part in this competition involves transferring to TMB the following exploitation rights which are derived from the shorts:

- Right to copy: any type of direct or indirect, provisional or permanent fixation, through any means and in any way that enables the communication and attainment of copies, of all or part, in any graphic, digital, electronic, photocopying, audio-visual media or system, or of any other nature.
- Right to public display: any form of public access without distributing copies in any media or technical system, whether it is interactive or not, with or without cabling, satellite, optical fibre, hertzian waves, analogue or digital, etc., for the projection, exhibition, broadcast or public transmission, in any TMB media (internet, intranet, MouTV and YouTube channels, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram profiles, etc.) and other means of communication that TMB reaches agreements with or are used as means to exhibit or advertise the festival. And with regard to the five finalist short films, also for their screening at the 2023 edition of the Seoul Metro International Subway Film Festival (SMIFF).

- Right to transformation: the right to dub or subtitle short films in any language and the copy and public display of works derived from said transformation.

This transfer is free of charge, covering any geographical location, and for a period of five years. It is non-exclusive in nature, without prejudice to recognising the moral rights that correspond to them.

16. Image rights

Participants authorize TMB to publish their names and surnames, and if they attend the prize-giving ceremony, that their image or voice can be captured, reproduced and advertised through any media, including internet and any other available interactive media, for the management of this competition or for future editions, along with other advertising campaigns or promotions or any other activity performed by TMB. This authorization does not give the participants the right to receive any remuneration whatsoever.

17. Data protection

You can consult TMBs personal data protection policy via the following links:

- Consult the treatment of your personal data

<https://www.tmb.cat/ca/politica-proteccio-dades-personals>

- Consult the activity log for this treatment

<https://www.tmb.cat/ca/registre-activitats-tractament-dades-personals>

18. Taxation of the prizes

In accordance with current legislation, the prizewinner will have to include the value of the prize in the general taxable amount in their tax return for the appropriate fiscal year, plus the payment made on account by TMB.

19. Acceptance of the rules

Contestants are informed that simply participating in the competition implies full acceptance of these conditions, instructions and any other communications and recommendations that TMB makes available to participants, and compliance with the conditions of use of the portals through which the competition is managed, and all current legislation. Any non-compliance will lead to the disqualification of the participant and, therefore, will mean that they will not be able to receive any of the prizes they would be entitled to, all of the above without prejudice to any legal action that may be taken against the offender, as well as TMB's right to delete the link to the offending participant's short film on the YouTube portal on the website <https://subtravellingfestival.tmb.cat/en/>

For what purpose do we process your personal data?

The data subject's personal data are processed for the purposes of managing participation in the TMB Subtravelling competition. More specifically, that purpose will include incorporating your data into a TMB database.

How long will we store your data for?

Personal data provided will be stored for the duration of competition, and if necessary, during the processing of the prize. After this, they will be deleted. Notwithstanding the above, TMB may keep personal data blocked until the legally applicable limitation periods have ended.

What is our legal basis for processing your personal data?

The legal basis for processing the data subject's personal data is their consent.

Who may we communicate your personal data to?

For the purposes of achieving the above-mentioned goal, the data subject's personal data may be transferred to third party organisations.

What are your rights regarding the data you provide us with?

Anybody has the right to obtain information on whether we are processing personal data that concerns you, or not. Data subjects have the right to access their personal data, and also to request the rectification of inaccurate data, or if applicable, their deletion, if they are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected.

In certain cases, data subjects will have the right to request the limitation of their personal data's processing, in which case we shall only keep them for the purposes of lodging or defending claims.

In certain circumstances, and for reasons relating to their own particular situation, data subjects may object to the processing of their data. In such cases, TMB will stop processing the data except for legitimate, compelling reasons or for lodging or defending possible claims.

In either of the above cases, TMB must communicate any correction or deletion of personal data, as well as any limitation to processing carried out, to each of the recipients that the personal data have been communicated to, except where this would be or require a disproportionate amount of effort. If the data subject requests this, said recipients must be informed.

Data subjects will likewise have the right to receive the personal data of concern to them that they have provided TMB with, in a structured, shared-use and machine-readable format and to transfer them to another data controller where the processing is based on consent or under a contract, and carried out by automated methods.

Data subjects will have the right at any time and for reasons relating to their personal situation to object to personal data of concern to them being subject to processing based on public or legitimate interests pursued by TMB or a third party, including profiling, such that TMB must stop its processing of the personal data, unless TMB can justify the processing for legitimate, compelling reasons that override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the purposes of formulating, lodging or defending claims.

Likewise, the data subject has the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including the preparation of profiles, which produces legal effects thereon, or which significantly affect him/her, unless this decision is necessary to enter into any contract between TMB and the data subject, which is authorized by European or state law in force, or is based on the explicit consent of the data subject.

The above-mentioned right of data access, rectification, deletion, opposition, portability and limitation, as well as the right not to be subject to individual automated decisions, may be exercised through the email address dades@tmb.cat

Finally, data subjects have the right to submit a claim before the Spanish Data Protection Agency.

How do we obtain the data?

The personal data processed by TMB are provided by the data subjects themselves.
